

CHANGING POLITICS: CONVERSATIONS WITH STANLEY CAVELL

Sponsored by

KYOTO UNIVERSITY, SPIRITS Project

“Philosophy as Translation and Understanding Other Cultures: Interdisciplinary Research in Philosophy and Education for Bidirectional Internationalization”

&

TUFTS UNIVERSITY

Date and time: Wednesday, 22 March 2017, 9:30-18:00

Place: Center for the Humanities at Tufts University (CHAT)

(48 Professors Row, Medford, MA, 02155, USA)

9:30-9:40 Welcome Nancy Bauer (Tufts University, USA) and Naoko Saito (Kyoto University, Japan)

PART I: Changing Politics

9:40 - 10:20 Cavell and the Politics of the Current Moment Alice Cray (The New School for Social Research, USA)

10:20 - 11:00 On Consumption Paul Standish (UCL Institute of Education, UK)

11:00 - 11:20 Coffee break

11:20 - 12:00 Challenging Inclusion and Philosophy as Translation Naoko Saito

12:00 - 13:30 Lunch

PART II: Conversations with Stanley Cavell

13:30 - 14:10 Truth in Conversation Juliet Floyd (Boston University, USA)

14:10 - 14:50 The Work of Acknowledgment: Freud, Wittgenstein, and Cavell Vincent Colapietro (Pennsylvania State University, USA)

14:50 - 15:20 Coffee break

15:20 - 16:00 Stanley Cavell's De-theorizing of Theoretical Questions Avner Baz (Tufts University, USA)

16:00 - 16:40 Stanley Cavell and the importance of importance Sandra Laugier (Paris 1st University, France)

16:40 - 17:20 Response Nancy Bauer

17:20 - 18:00 Desire, Knowledge, and Impersonation in Proust Richard Moran (Harvard University, USA)

18:00 - 18:10 Closing Nancy Bauer and Naoko Saito

19:00 - Dinner